

February Curriculum

To: All Parents in the Toddler class

From: The Toddler Teacher

RE: January Curriculum

In February we will be celebrating Chinese New Year, Valentine's Day, Father/Child night and the life cycle of a chicken.

Practical Life

- Heart spooning, Chopstick transfer, Heart water straining, Strawberry scented pink clay making, Heart tonging, Doll washing and Baking cookies.

Sensorial

- Grading hearts, Red color box and basket, Scented candle matching

Art

- Red Doilie wreath, Heart sticker art, Heart cookie cutter with clay work, Heart sun catcher

Small Motor

- Sorting Valentine buttons, Heart puzzles.

Language

- Letter "h" with red beans, Winter animals, Chick matching pictures.

Geography

- China – Chinese instruments, Chinese's clothing, chopstick transfer, Chinese decorations and Chinese food.

Science

- Farmer visit with hen and rooster, egg turning while in the incubator, Life cycle of a chick puzzle, care of chicks after being born and chick petting.

Math

- Penguin snowball counting, heart counting and chick counting.

Music

- Chinese traditional music, songs about love and Chinese drum.

Song

- .Skidamarink, I love you, Old McDonald

Books

- Lucky New Year - Mary Man-Kong, Do you love me –Barbara Joesse, Mouse's First Valentine –Lauren Thompson, Things to make and Do for Valentine's day- Tomie Depaola